Application Fees

- Many colleges offer waived or reduced fees to students who receive free or reduced lunch, or are suffering from financial hardships. Please check each college's Application/Materials Checklist on CICCollegeAppMonth.org or the college websites to find more information.
- Be sure to have students review each college's Application/Materials Checklist on CICCollegeAppMonth.org or the college websites to review payment options, so they can prepare ahead of time for the application process. There may be colleges that waive fees for applying online.

College Board Fee Waiver

Counselors should have received "Request for Waiver of College Application Fee" forms as part of the SAT Program fee-waiver materials shipped to you in the summer, and you can distribute these to your students as necessary. If you need to request additional forms, call the Counselor Helpline at (888) SAT-HELP (888-728-4357). For more information on the College Board Fee Waiver program, please visit:
